Barre Farmer in Trouble

J. R. Morrison of 57 Hill street, Barre, Vt., the well-known farmer, says: "I suffered for three years from rheumatism and kidney trouble. The rheumatism set in my knees and made it hard to get around. I had headaches every once in a while and catarrh affected my hearing. My back was sore and lame and bothered me a lot. I would have to get up as often as four or five times a night and was so nervous I couldn't sleep good. "I didn't know what would help me until a friend told me to try Goldine, the new herb remedy," and I took his advice." Ask Mr. Morrison what he thinks of Goldine now.

Ask Mrs. Eliza Woods what she thinks of GOLDINE for stomach trouble.

Goldine is sold in Barre by Cummings & Lewis and all leading dealers throughout this section, including the towns of East Barre, S. Barre, West Barre, Grantville, Williams-town, Washington, Topham and Brookfield.—Adv.

CAN NOW EAT HEARTILY AND SLEEPS WELL

This Vermont Resident Finds That Blood Builder Removes Cause of Her Suffering.

Don't think that because your stomach is easily upset you are a victim of a serious organic malady. One of the most common predisposing causes of indigestion is anemia, or thin blood. In fact, it has become generally recognized that the normal functional activity of the stomach is impossible without healthy, well-oxygenated blood.

Before you begin worrying unnecessarily over your condition and thereby increasing your distress, try the tonic that Miss Lydia L. Lower, of 47 South Champlain street, Burlington, Vt., used so profitably. You will be surprised to see how rapidly your appetite returns and the whole debilitated system revives as the improved blood courses through the body. Miss Lower says:

"I developed chronic stomach trouble and for many nights I was unable to sleep, or if I did succeed in getting to sleep I didn't seem to get any rest. Morning found me weaker and more worn out than the day before. I couldn't enjoy my food, even when I had a desire to eat, because I had to suffer so much stomach distress. It got so that I couldn't walk but a little way without resting, and I suffered from shortness of breath in walking up stairs."

"One day a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me, and I procured a box. They had an almost miraculous effect on me, and after I had taken the pills for a week I could see a marked improvement in my condition. I continued the treatment until my stomach trouble had disappeared and I could eat heartily and sleep well. Gradually my strength returned, and now I feel as strong as ever and I am glad to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to those who suffer as I did."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blood builder and nerve tonic. The rich, red blood that they make not only carries color to the cheeks and lips and gives vigor to the muscles, but it revitalizes the exhausted nerves and quiets the pains of neuralgia and sciatica. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no opiates nor harmful drugs; they restore health and strength, but do not give temporary stimulation.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System," and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.—Adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The Hardwick to Montpelier and Barre stage will run as soon as the roads are settled. C. L. Parrott.

H. P. Hinman has received a letter from his brother, Capt. B. H. Hinman, who is with the American expeditionary forces in France, stating that he has been given the privilege of entering the University of Sorbonne in Paris for a three months' course in international law and kindred subjects. Capt. Hinman, in civilian life, is an attorney located at Berlin, N. H.

Dr. H. K. Sowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sowles of Barre, who returned from abroad with the 103d infantry medical corps, believes that Brest is "one of the most magnificent camps in France," his opinion having been expressed to a reporter of the Boston Post when he arrived in Boston. Then he went on to describe the comforts and the care given the men. The men all sleep on cots with "real mattresses," he said, and are billeted in tents, six men to a tent. "The camp takes care of 2,000 lbs. an hour, so you see there is no reason for the men coming home dirty." The temperature of every man who went on board the America was taken and if one showed a degree of temperature he was sent to the hospital. Throughout the entire trip home there are "cotton" inspections each day after the delousing campaign before the start. Capt. Sowles said the men were delighted with the reception accorded them in Boston and that it was a great mental tonic to them.

What About the Band?

With the approach of Memorial day, when Barre bands of whatever name usually make their season's debut, citizens of the city are speculating over the prospects of a series of open-air concerts next summer. Hope that the coming season may witness a resumption of interest in public concerts such as was manifested in the old days when the Barre Citizens' band was in its prime, is inspired by thoughts of returning soldiers. This, because some of the most talented musicians of this vicinity joined the colors when the Headquarters company of the 1st Vermont regiment was recruited in Barre back in the fevered spring days of 1917. There is a possibility, therefore, that some of the bandmen now with the colors may be available for service in the city park bandstand before July 4, or even by Memorial day.

The Barre City band, composed of the city's best music makers, has been practicing assiduously throughout the winter, and if the proper support is forthcoming, will be heard later in the spring. The Times is informed that the band is well equipped for a series of concerts, and therefore, by many it is assumed that the next move should be made by the city council. N. S. Love has been appointed band manager for this season, and the services of W. E. Gilbertson as leader have been retained. Musicians connected with the band are understood to be somewhat modest in their desires, but it goes without saying that the band cannot survive unless it is given the necessary support.

It is a well-known fact that the Montpelier band, many of whose members live in Barre, are liberally supported, the players being recompensed both for time spent in rehearsals and in concerts. Barre people, who are anxious to have the present local organization sustained, services of a band. For obvious reasons, the observance of Memorial day this year should be more than ever impressive, and it is generally realized that a good band is an essential feature of any such public observance. So it comes about that a lot of people are interested in the band and just a little bit worried over its fortunes. Perhaps the city council will relieve their anxiety.

How Much is 1¢

Suppose that for one cent you could insure the quality of your cake, biscuits, etc., wouldn't that be real economy?

Well, one cent is about the difference in the cost of a whole cake or a pan of biscuits made with Royal Baking Powder as compared with cheaper baking powders made from alum or phosphate—a trifle, indeed, to insure the quality and wholesomeness of your baking.
